5.5 Young Men's Club

The Select Board discussed the licensed premises and ongoing issues at the Young Men's Club.

Jennifer Sanders-James reported that she and Carolyn Brennan had received recent photographs that imply license infractions. Jennifer Sanders-James and Carolyn Brennan have reached out to the ABCC Jennifer Sanders-James reported the following responses from the ABCC:

- 1. The ABCC stated that photographs are not necessarily admissible.
- 2. The ABCC also recommended that the Town tighten the description of the Young Men's Club premises, suggesting that the Town reach out to Town counsel for assistance in this effort.

Jennifer Sanders James did reach out to Town Counsel. Town Counsel has recommended that the Town appoint an alcohol enforcement officer, most likely from within the Police Department. The alcohol enforcement officer would be allowed to enter the premises without a warrant and would be allowed to take pictures. Any violations witnessed by the appointed alcohol enforcement officer would be reported back to the Select Board. Jennifer Sanders-James stated that whether or not an alcohol enforcement officer would be up to the discretion of the Select Board, and if the Select Board wished to pursue an alcohol enforcement officer, Chief Mason would be contacted.

Joyce Chunglo asked what other duties might be assigned to the alcohol enforcement officer. Jennifer Sanders-James responded that the alcohol enforcement officer would be empowered to investigate any reported alcohol license infractions in the Town. Chief Mason added that anyone appointed as the alcohol enforcement officer would need training along with certification from the ABCC. Chief Mason confirmed that acting as the alcohol enforcement officer would not be that appointee's only police duties.

Jennifer Sanders James stated that the Young Men's Club was aware that the recent addition of an outdoor deck to the clubhouse was not part of the licensed premises at least when the Town Building Inspector approved the deck construction.

Jennifer Sanders James stated that an email was sent on September 6, 2023, to the attorney for the Young Men's Club affirming that the deck was not part of the licensed premises.

Joyce Chunglo asked Chief Mason to look into what it would cost the Town to get someone trained and certified by the ABCC as an alcohol enforcement officer.

Jennifer Sanders James stated that the attorney for the Young Men's Club will be submitting a new liquor license application soon. Jennifer Sanders James will meet with the attorney and review the license application before submitting it to the Select Board for review approval soon.

Jane Nevinsmith asked if there should be two people trained as alcohol enforcement officers. Chief Mason replied that there should be more than two individuals trained and certified. Randy Izer expressed concern about an event reported to be taking place at the Young Men's Club on September 7.

Chief Mason received a text message from a board member of the Young Men's Club stating that s/he was unaware of any such scheduled event.

Nick Wojtowicz questioned the Select Board's actions towards the Young Men's Club in light of his public comments and photographs submitted showing a recent event on the Young Men's Club deck where alcohol was being served. Joyce Chunglo assured Mr. Wojtowicz that the Select Board is trying to work with everyone involved. Joyce Chunglo stated that the Young Men's Club is currently allowing youth soccer teams sponsored by the Park & Rec Department to use the field there for free. Mr. Wojtowicz responded by asking if that was a reason to allow the Young Men's Club to break the rules relative to their liquor license.

Amy Parsons recapped that the actions to be taken include:

- 1. Chief Mason would research the training and related duties of alcohol enforcement officer candidates.
- 2. Jennifer SandersJames would meet with the attorney for the Young Men's Club to make sure the new alcohol license application is complete before submitting to the Select Board for consideration.
- 3. The Select Board will take up at a future date the policies and procedures and level of empowerment for the alcohol enforcement officers.
- 4. All of the above points (1 through 3) will be considered at the next Select Board meeting on September 20.
