Conversation with Library Director Patrick Borezo

By Sharon Howard (Interviewer)

This month's interview for Hadley Matters will be with the Goodwin Library Director Patrick Borezo on Thursday, June 3 at 2 p.m. The interview will take place in the new Hadley Library and will begin with a tour of the space. Together we will explore the children's, young adult and adult sections with the help of library staff Luna Greenwood and Sue Brown. Following the tour Sharon will sit down with Patrick to talk about what is currently happening at the library and future plans. Any questions you might have can be submitted during the interview in the Zoom chat. This interview will be an exciting opportunity to enter the place your generosity has provided. Come join us.

As you all know, Hadley is a "happening town." There is so much going on here that it is hard to keep up. Once a month Sharon Howard will be interviewing town officials and local Hadley residents who wish to share information with the townspeople. If you have suggestions for those you would like to hear interviewed or if you have questions you would like to have addressed, please contact Violet at coaprograms@hadleyma.org
