(m) to compromise, attribute, defend, enforce, release, settle or otherwise adjust claims in favor or against the Trust, including claims for taxes, and to accept any property, either in total or partial satisfaction of any indebtedness or other obligation, and subject to the provisions of G.L. c. 44, §55C, to continue to hold the same for such period of time as the Board of Trustees may deem appropriate, provided that to adjust any claim or accept any property in satisfaction of any indebtedness where the Trustees reasonably determine that the value of the claim or amount of the indebtedness is equal to or greater than $10,000 shall require the approval of the Selectboard, unless authorized or approved by Town Meeting;

(n) to manage or improve real property owned by the Trust or by others and in which the Board of Trustees has an interest; and to abandon any interest in property which the Board of Trustees determines not to be worth retaining;

The Trustees may, by instrument executed by all the Trustees, delegate to any attorney, agent or employee such other powers and duties as they deem advisable, including power to execute and deliver instruments as fully as the Trustees might themselves and to sign and endorse checks for the account of the Trustees of the Trust. The Trustees shall not delegate the authority to amend or terminate the Trust and no such delegation shall be effective. No Trustee shall

In exercising these powers, the Trustees shall recognize the role of the Selectboard as the principal procurement officer under G.L. c.30B, including the bidding and awarding of all contracts. Where an act of the Trustees requires prior written notice to the Selectboard, notice shall be deemed given when addressed to the Selectboard, and an affidavit by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees that notice was given as required by this Section shall be conclusive and binding evidence to that effect, provided that in the case of the acquisition and disposition of any right, title and interest in real property, such affidavit is recorded with the appropriate Registry of Deeds or filed with the Registry District of the Land Court.
